10.05/26 To discuss and agree next actions for Watermark Scheme

Cllr Eldridge gave update on meeting with Wessex Water. The process for obtaining the funds hasn't been finalised by Wessex Water yet so we can't offer/do anything that involves spending money yet. Agreed to aim leaflets that Wessex Water are creating at children and run a competition over the summer holidays for local children to get involved with; linking with local primary schools and the library. Still waiting to see the outcome of South Gloucestershire Council's "Resilient Frome" initiative before agreeing what all the funding is spent on but agreed that we will do “giveaways” of water butts etc for residents who engage with us on saving water/checking for leaks. Also agreed to do a “yellow fish” campaign in the local area, including in Frenchay. C&NO to provide photos and wildlife info to Wessex Water for leaflets. Cllrs to let C&NO know if they can attend the Watermark Meeting on 24th June (3pm to 5pm) at Brabazon Hangar. C&NO to prepare launch of Watermark events on social media.

- 11.05/26 To discuss and agree on next steps for tree adoption/dedication Agreed to have plaques and tree adoption as an option for local residents as an alternative to benches. C&NO to prepare proposal and put on Full Council Agenda and look at T&Cs for benches.
- 12.05/26 To discuss and agree next steps for the Community Nature Reserve Agreed to link with our Watermark publicity and with winning a water butt. Agreed we should become a Hedgehog Friendly Town. C&NO to put together a proposal for Full Council. C&NO to look at Community Nature Reserve link from Cllr Hancock.
- 13.05/26 To discuss and agree next steps of Duck Pond Verge development
C&NO reported that the next item on the development plan is creating a natural habitat. C&N Committee agreed this might not be the right thing to have at the Duck Pond Verge. Cllr Hancock to look into the development plan and work out next steps.
- 14.05/26 To confirm the date of the August meeting
Confirmed that the August meeting will be on 19th August.
